Health and safety readiness in the age of coronavirus

HOSPITALITY SAFETY FROM THE OUTSIDE IN

Health and safety awareness has changed dramatically due to COVID-19. Many things we used to do without a second thought — such as staying at a hotel — now give us pause.

Social distancing guidelines are everywhere but some may still be apprehensive about re-engaging in public. From the front door to the back of the house, you can put your guests and employees at ease with products that enable safe interactions.

Safety At Every Touchpoint

Guard the health of all who enter. Strategically placed signs, decals and partitions — as well as single-use disposable items — can enhance safety for guests and employees alike.

1 A-Frame Signs

Durable and useful indoors and out, A-frame signs can be placed wherever needed most.

2 Acrylic Partitions

Portable counter-top barriers are the first line of protection for your staff and guests.

3 Floor Decals

Floor decals are a simple-but-effective way to direct traffic and encourage social distancing.

4 Retractable Banner Stands

Large and easy to read, retractable banners communicate effectively but use minimal floor space.

5 Window/Wall Decals

Easy-on, easy-off decals can be applied to nearly any flat surface — including restroom mirrors.

6 Acrylic Partition Kiosks

Free-standing kiosks are a safe way to welcome visitors to your venue and allow you to break up lines, implement new screening policies, etc.

7 Paper Table Tents

Table tents let you share important messages where they're needed most.

FOR YOUR SAFETY,
A DISPOSABLE (AND CLEABLE!) MENU.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a light blue surgical face mask, a black blazer, a patterned turtleneck, and tan trousers, is looking down at her smartphone. She is standing in a modern office with large glass windows and black frames. A red geometric pattern is visible on the left side of the image.
